

KROS COLLEGE, LEIRIE KOHIMA: NAGALAND

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

ZHÜDOUGEI (A Multidisciplinary Peer-Reviewed Journal) is an annual Peer-Reviewed Journal which was first published in September, 2024 by KROS College, Kohima, Nagaland. The name of the Journal has been inspired by the ancestral name of the location of the college. In the olden days, Zhüdou was the hallowed land where warriors could safely take off and place their war shield, thereby taking rest comfortably. Hence, the name ZHÜDOU.

The Journal aims to foster rigorous research and scholarly discourse across various fields. The Journal invites academic scholars, teaching faculties and researchers from all disciplines to contribute scholarly work and be a part of the academic initiative.

SCOPE OF THE JOURNAL

The scope of the Journal is National. The journal aims to promote rigorous research and scholarly discourse across multiple disciplines, including Sciences, Social Sciences, Humanities, and Education. The journal primarily focuses on contributions within the country while welcoming original papers and articles on diverse topics from related fields.
